Although there was a cold wind last Monday. the Englishman, the Frenchman and the Mississip plan went down to Coney Island. In the first e they wished to see how that gay resort looked a cold, bleak day, and in the second place, the Frenchman and the Mississippian did not leve that the Englishman would take a plungin the ocean, as he had declared he would "By Jove, don't you know," he had said, "I'd as soon go in now as any other time. It doesn't many any blooming difference to me whether ther people do it or not. I jump in me tauth every morning, no matter how cold it is." Mais, comment done," exclaimed the Frenchman with a shiver, "you will make youself freeze "That's all right," said the Mississippian, "let him bathe if he wants to. There is a difference though between the ocean and a tub in a warm from Wait until the wind hits him on the legs And flattens a wet tathing suit against his skin." But the Englishman was immovable. He said that the notion had struck him, and he intended ful Villa, as the three call their home, with the ultimatum that and see more quiet reigned in that remait during the night, a report would be made to the numerities. The Frenchman flared up, the Englishman blustered something about a imperturbable dignity, settled the matter

"Permit my grathemen," he sald, stepping for ing the members of the embassy, "that we have your institution, and it therefore surprises me names to be heard here during the evening. mins my to tell con that there is such a noise the convent during the day that we cannot man "I feel miself hungry. We shall eat when the competitions often compet us to work we get to New York, ch" at night, so that restduring the day is absolutely esarty, but her eng as also, when, for three ours on a struck, your little girl pupils pound ded that the convent had not complained. er are the three friends managed to get caught hold of him and held him under the shower. Instead of cooling him, this in obly made him very hot. As soon as re 4, he would grab a foil or a Cuban machine

AN EARLY TRIPTO THE SEA.

CONEY ISLAND AS SEEN BY THREE FRIENDS ON A COLD DAY.

The Englishman Takes a Bath and Astonishes the Natives—The Frenchman Finds an Appetite—The Mississippian Moralizes—A Home Opposite a Convent.

Although there was a cold wind last Monday.

Although there was a cold wind last Monday.

Although there was a cold wind last Monday.

The Englishman Takes a Bath and Astonishes the Natives—The Frenchman Finds an Appetite—The Mississippian Moralizes—A Home Opposite a Convent.

Although there was a cold wind last Monday.

The Mississippian Moralizes—A Home Opposite a Convent.

Although there was a cold wind last Monday.

The Mississippian Moralizes—The Mississippian Mississip on a beam, directly over the enemy's head, but so situated that retreat was made easy. The other boys handed out pieces of wood, and Faun-tleroy tried to drop them on the man's face. The man stirred, there was a scamper, and bystanders who had been looking on with amusement, tried to appear as if they hadn't seen anything. "Well" exclaimed the Mississippian, "here "Well" exclaimed the Mississippian, "here comes Arthur."

The Frenchman looked, and so did everybody else on the beach. The Englishman had really been in carnest. He was making for the water on a run, attired in a blue ilannel bathing suit that fitted him rather badly. He had experienced considerable difficulty in getting even that; as the lathhouse had not yet opened for business, and the man in charge had expressed surprise that any one should wish togo in on such a day.

In an old house opposite a convent, much to the perset of the convent. The Englishman plays the flute, the Frenchman strains melody out of an old planes rented at raduced rates, and the Mississippian twangs a braip. Also they often entertain triends at little randons which last far into the night.

The little randoms opposite a convent, much to the Mississippian.

"Eh bien, he would go; what's the use?" remarked the Frenchman with a strug. But the Englishman was too sensible to venture far. So long as he kept his body under water and was in motion, he did not feel the cold. When he returned to shallow water, however, the wind struck his body, and he began to shive, when he reached the beach, his lips were blue and trembling.

re blooming hour."
responded the Mississippian, "If we hadn't been there to care for you, you might they swum again "
Mais comment dove," exclaimed the French-

HIS LAST TRIP AROUND TOWN. A Trap Laid by the Visitor to the City Who

Had Been Victimized Often. He had been in New York two weeks. He came to see the town and he had been up against town had been lying in wait for him and had got everything away that he happened to have daily. He sent home for more money and got it, after that when he went out he never took with

His experiences each night taught him wisdom and on Saturday night when he started out for sion was approaching and the Democrats had put his last trip around town M was with a bland ging back of gates. Bo you want the grade of points and hand you in?"

It lose head in all this rush.

In Fourth avenue to Twenty-third street, across Twenty-third street to Broadway and then turned down on the west side of the street. You will to be been other men stand up had observed the varancy, dashed in and it.

That's how the British grabbed India," reset to Broadway on the west side is rather dark. Well, he had just reached this rather dark with a score of more clerklets around him.

"After greeting him just as Schandt used to with the packet of any one foolish enough to stop to talk to them and if they can't do that and they are set the cord from the folgashman two China are set the cord from the folgashman two China are set the cord from the folgashman two China are set the cord from the folgashman two China are set the cord from the folgashman two China are set the cord from the folgashman two China are set the cord from the folgashman two China are set the cord from the folgashman two China are set the cord from the folgashman two China are set the cord from the folgashman two China are set the cord from the folgashman two China are set the cord from the folgashman two China are set the cord from the folgashman two China are set the cord from the folgashman two China are set the cord from the folgashman two China are set the folgashman two C

his eyes, rested his head on the leather topped

"Your visit reminded me of my own journalistic experience," the great man went on, opening his I was me eyes again. "It eacht to be published as a warn." eyes again. "It ought to be published as a warning to those ambitious to enter the newspaper | Signment. path to glory and those upon it and anxious to

The three friends occupy a state of apartments

The three friends occupy a state of apartments

In an old house opposite a convent, much to the a heavy jaw, "but he'd better look out for a cramp,"

I wish we had prevented him from going."

The Englishman plays

I wish we had prevented him from going."

been in carnest. He was making for the water on a run, attred in a blue flamed bothing suit that nitted inn rather ladly. He had experienced considers, he discussed in getting even that, as considers, he discussed the following and the man in charge, had expressed surprise that anyone should wish to go in on such a day. "Get on to dat guy," cried Fauntleroy, in deep administration of the content. I'll be hanged if he air geting to the 'a swim." Come on, boys, dere a golden to be the content and the man in charge. I had expressed surprise that anyone should wish to go in on such a day. "Get on to dat guy," cried Fauntleroy, in deep administration of the content. I'll be hanged if he air geting could not discovered the sand to eat their lunch, the Prenchman and the Mississippian, everybody, wast down to the water's edge. The Englishman, uiser grounds odd water and wind, leaged through the content with the serious of discovered wave. That fellows all right, remarked a many vith a string with never years. The fellow's all right, remarked in from guing.

The beautiful of the fellows all right, remarked in from guing.

The beautiful of the fellows all right, remarked in from guing.

The beautiful of the fellows all right, remarked in from guing.

The beautiful of the cold which was a long, but the high-liminal was to sensible to very flavored the beach, his lips were bland or the new journalism, and I had no models for it will be from guing.

The beautiful of the cold which was a long to the content with a string with the correct and accurate present the mean in charge of the mean in charge of the difficulties in the way grain to the acceptance of the cold water and wind, leaged through the content of the cold water and wind, leaged through the content of the cold water and wind, leaged through the content of the cold water and was leaded to water that you were not the proper land to gold water and was leaded to water that the proper land to gold water and was leaded to water that you were not the proper land to gold proper handling of the English language. I ored woman up an alley. Of the dog my story said that he had been taken to the Hospital got a job on what I will call the Morning Gury.

recall some of the facts I'll give you; they'll know

"There were a couple of German morning papers

the paper's right name.

in the place, and I was chummy with a reporter on one of these for a good while before I got the job. I'll call him Schmidt. This man's duty finished for the day. It was a great advantage reto me to go with him and learn what the sources of news in that place were and how to make the great man most of each. I accompanied him on that vi it every afternoon for a whole week before I was added to the staff of the Morning Glory. He was well known and well liked and he got a good deal of news. The man whom he used to address as 'Mr. Sheriff,' and whom I knew from that to be Sheriff Johnson, was very good to him, and to hail with. 'Hello, Mr. County Clerk,' and whom | evening the past week. I knew from that to be County Clerk Jones.

"Fortunately, as it seemed to me, the first as signment the Glory's city editor gave me was to about fees illegally collected by each. An elecwas the Glory. Big with the trust reposed in

THREE DAYS A REPORTER. pay up. Good night. He was gone before I

THREE DAYS A REPURIER.

A BANKER'S STORY OF HOW HE CAME TO BE A GREAT MAN.

Without Knowing It He Was a Precursor of the Journalism That Does Things, but Was Not Appreciated and Proved a Hoodoo Worse Than Dynamite.

When the interview was over and the reporter was reaching for his hat the great man said pleasantly: "Hold on a minute." Then he closed his eyes, rested his head on the leather topped back of his office chair and smiled. The reporter sandy is the minute of the great man diffusion of the great man diffusion of the great man diffusion great in circulation and influence. Alas, the Morning Glory was doomed that day, and through was doomed that day, and through me if was destined to see one more true editor at least of the great Morning Glory, was doomed that day, and through me. It was destined to see one more true.

"Your visit reminded me of my own journalistic."

That name will do for the thousands who will man who mixed the concluding paragraphs of catch the point exactly," remarked the

THE SENATOR'S LUCK

Wanted to Lose $5 in Return for His Meal, but Had to Win Thousands.

From the Washington Post. "I came here with the first Senator from Minne sota after the Territory was admitted as a State," when he was elected by the Legislature, and takto the court house and get interviews with the ing part in the fight, concluded to come on to Sheriff and County Clerk as to allegations which Washington, as in those days 1858, Washington the experts on the books for political reasons. erected my tepee in the Capital the Senator invited me to visit him. While making the rounds one afternoon we got hungry, and I invited him into Pringle's. Pringle's at this time was the finest was not there. That didn't matter so much ganaling house in Washington. The proposit is ganaling house in Washington. score or prope clerklets around him.

"After greeting him just as Schmidt used to with "Hello, Mr. County Clerk" and on being answered in kind, I attempted to get the inserview. But he'd nothing to say. In vain I pictured to him that the wicked Democrats would be just delighted with his silence. He seemed to think I was joking. He grew angry. So did I. Desperate at the large term of the green cloth as a profession. I was then in or about my turtreth year, and thought no more of with r lose 85,000 man I would now of a single five dol r bill. There were no ten or twe ty five cent chips in those days. The winter cost of the green cloth as a profession. I was then in or all the profession and thought no work a single five dol r bill. There were no ten or twe ty five cent chips in those days. The winter cost of the green cloth as a profession. I was then in or all the profession are the profession of the green cloth as a profession. I was then in or all the profession are the profession of the green cloth as a profession. I was then in or all the profession are the profession of the green cloth as a profession. I was then in or all the profession are profession. I was then in or all the profession are profession. I was then in or all the profession are profession. I was then in or all the profession are profession. I was then in or all the profession are profession. I was then in or all the profession are profession. I was then in or all the profession are profession and thought no more carried to him the profession are profession. I was then in or all the profession are profession and the profession are profession. I was then in or all the profession are profession are profession are profession are profession are profession. I was then in or all the profession are profession and profession are profession are profession are profession are profession are profession are profession are and come down to the training quarters." "Now, I'll leave it to you if that wasn't a pretty flerce game to steer a young player against and I clothes. The more I thought it over the poorer man who mixed the concluding paragraphs of the two stones when putting the type into the forms, but I was the hooden evertheless; at least I have always thought so. Mayor Post was well enough to read the paper the next day, and well enough to send an order directing it to cease publication. Which it did. I degenerated into a banker and here I am.

"And how do I know that you're the banker?

"And how do I know that you're the banker?

"And how do I know that you're the banker?

"And how do I know that you're the banker?

"And how do I know that you're the banker?

"And how do I know that you're the banker?

"And how do I know that you're the banker?

"And how do I know that you're the banker?

"And how do I know that you're the banker?

"And how do I know that you're the banker?

"And how do I know that you're the banker?

"And how do I know that you're the banker?

"And how do I know that you're the banker?

"And how do I know that you're the banker?

"And how do I know that you're the banker?

"And how do I know that you're the hor to make a pritty good bluff, at any rate, and when I came down to the hotel office and asked I was beginning to recover my nerve. The clerk looked me over, nodded his head and then asked whether I was the new catcher for the team. I

The manager's a queer sort of chap, too blamed scientific to my way of thinking, but he took a lot of rews last see on and made them pennant winners, and if a man has the game in him why

Mike'll bring it out. Can you hit?" "I was strong at that game and when I told him my average he allowed that I would be all right, if I followed instructions and called science to so was the gray haired old chap whom he used | said Col. Cole Martin to a group of listeners one | my assistance | The training quarters were in a roller skating rink, giving plenty of room for States Senator, and I, being a resident of St. Paul was at work with the stick. What I saw sur prised me more than a foul tip on a split finger. Way down at the far end of the rink was a half from where they stood to the squares. But they walked over, shook hands, called the rist of the gang over and introduced me and then handed me a club. One of the pitchers shot up a nice one and I copped it square. The ball goes on a line near the top of the rink and pushes out a window. I looked to see what the manager thought of the hit and saw him rubbing his chin.

"You hit 'em hard enough, 'says he, but you and the control of the hit and saw him rubbing his chin.

"You hit 'em hard enough, 'says he, but you had been a General in the war between Bolivia and Chile back in the early 'Sos. He was never about you had been a General in the world bad been a General in the world had been a General in the world story that but he was never and the property stand about for a week and be ver make the larger than $10. Then he wand adopted to the larger than $10. Then he wand adopted to the control of the hit and bear made the property of the property of the control of the hit and saw him rubbing his chin. single | thought of the hit and saw him rubbing his chin.

The state of the s

SCIENTIFIC BALL WON.

But I do think that perhaps that fresh left fielder's hide isn't so thick that horners' stingers wont make any impression. If you don't push the ball right into that bunch of winged fire this afternoon, you ought to quit the game. I'm beginning to think that you aren't as clever as I longing the property of the pane. I'm beginning to think that you aren't as clever as I longing the property of the pane. I'm beginning to think that you aren't as clever as I longing the property of the pane. I'm beginning to think that you aren't as clever as I longing to think that perhaps that fresh left fielder's hide isn't so thick that horners' stingers wont make any impression. If you don't push the beginning to think that perhaps that fresh left fielder's hide isn't so thick that horners' stingers wont make any impression. If you don't push the beginning to think that perhaps that fresh left fielder's hide isn't so thick that horners' stingers wont make any impression. If you don't push the beginning to think that perhaps that fresh left fielder's hide isn't so thick that horners' stingers wont make any impression. If you don't push the beginning to think that you aren't as clever as I magning to think that you aren't as clever as I magning to think that you aren't as clever as I magning to think that you aren't as clever as I magning to think that you aren't as clever as I magning to think that you aren't as clever as I magning to think that you aren't as clever as I magning to think that you aren't as clever as I magning to think that you aren't as clever as I magning to think that you aren't as clever as I magning to think that you aren't as clever as I magning to think that you aren't as clever as I magning to think that you aren't as clever as I magning to think that perhaps that fresh left fielder's hide in't so this tunch of the burner as clever as I magning that the property is the property in the burner as clever as I magning think that perhaps that fresh left fielder's hide in't so the burne holding down a lob as ground keeper out West.

It was pretty hard luck, but he started it, and people who undertake to interfere with the development of science, even in baseball, must be checked.

checked.

"Rather an improbable tale? Just as you please, but there's port of the nest over in the corner and look out or you'll think that all the hornets haven't descrited it." and the man with the crooked fingers sent a shower of sparks from fellow," who loves conviviality, and no game is ton hazardous for him if he has the amount of the stakes. He takes pleasure in telling the history of his service, as it concerns the most audacious game of chance he ever witnessed.

THE GAMBLER AND THE WORM. A Scheme That Worked Well for a While,

"When I was in Bolivia, some years ago," he batting practice, and when I walked in the team | knew no bounds. Strange as it may seem, none happens to strike the line. Then he saw me and into furniture and bores until nothing but a shell

WOULD NOT FIGHT FRANCE

ATTITUDE OF FRANCH CANADIANS SHORN CLEARLY.

Sir Charles Tupper Comes Oat Against Imperial Federation Important Revela-

no Strictly Scientific Principles—Support of the second of the principles—Support of the second strictly strict Province of Quebec

As regards the sentiments of French Canada. notable incident has just occurred: L. O. David of Montreal, the national historian of the Rebellion of 1837, and the apologist for the insurrectionists of that period, "the patriots of 1837-38," as ne calls them, is one of the Premier's most intimate friends. Yet be has just published a note of warning showing that in the event of war breaking out between Lygland and France, French Canadians need not be expected to fight for England, since to do so would be asking them to shoot A Scheme That Worked Well for a While, but Resulted in Disaster.

From the Louisville Erening Post.

A gentleman who lives in the Bluegrass, and who has been a very extensive traveller, has a silver service, so magnificent in design and heavy in weight that its peers in the whole world may be numbered on the fingers of one hand. The owner is even now, when past middle age, a "good offlow" who leaves quantifying a proposed to the Province of Quelect.

annic Majesty's loyal subjects of the Province of Quebec!

Histily reading the signs of the times in this province. Sir Charles Tapper hurried to Quebec on Saturday last and enunciated a brand rew Conservative policy for the next elections. He admitted that he himself had been an Imperial Federationist in the past, but showed his Ferich-Canadian heaters that he had seen the fallacy "When I was in Bolivia, some years ago," he always begins, "I got in with a crowd of men. English and natives, whose passion for gambling knew no bounds. Strange as it may seem, none of them knew poker, and I made myself solid with them by teaching them, but their great game was roulette. There was a little shop in Bogata, where they had a miniature Monte Cario, and many nights did we spend around the great wheel, with our money and prospects hanging on the black or ted. The wheel was entirely made of wood, and when it was spun around a cover was put over the machine, so that they could keep on betting when it had ceased to turn. There is a worm down there in that climate that gets into furniture and bores until nothing but a shell is left. You may sit on a chair that looks perfectly strong, but at the first torch it collapses. This seems irrelevant, but it is not, as you may see later. In fact, that worm plays the title role in the tragedy I am going to tell.

"There was a wealthy Polician planter, who had been a General in the war between Bolivia and Chile back in the early look. He vas never absent a night from our sames, but he world trequently stand about for a week, and be ver make a bet larger than $10. Then he would stadenly would adedne to fight on the side of Firsher.